NUMBER 68.

We Have Heard Worse.

They're telling of a Montgomery county farmer who found an auto horn in the road one day, took it home and taught his chickens to recognize its honk as their feed call. Instead of calling them in the good old-fashioned way the farmer or his wife blew the auto horn. One day an automobilist passed the farm going about fifteen miles an hour and tooting his horn. The chickens near the house took after the auto and fourteen hens and three roosters ran themselves to death before the machine.

Arter Daddy's "Bear" Record.

A dispatch from Deadwood, S. D., says: Kermit Roosevelt, Stanley Bullock and Paul Martin, in the care of Captain Seth Bullock and guides, Burt Tilley and Will Hardin, left there Tuesday night for a ten-days' hunting trip. The three lads are about the same age.

Kermit Roosevelt was the recipient of much attention and talked good-naturedly with everyone he met.

"If I can only get a bear," he said, "my highest ambition is to beat my father's bear-slaying record, but I scarcely expect to do that."

William H. York, aged 70, one of the best-known citizen of Anderson county, was arrested on the charge of murdering his brother, James R. York, aged 83 years. The accused man stoutly denies his guilt, but so wrought up are the citizens of Lawrenceburg over the crime that the authorities have removed York to the Louisville jail for safe keeping.

When asked by a reporter if he feared mob violence he replied:

"Do I tremble at the thought of the escape from the mob?" asked York. "Did any member of Morgan's command tremble in the most trying positions? Sufficient to say I was a member of Morgan's command."

THE Fleming County Fiscal Court has granted the right-of-way and franchise through that county to the Maysville, Carlisle, Millersburg and Paris Traction Company. This was the last county to act, all others have granted the desired privileges.
The local money has all been raised; the public franchises have been granted, and the company incorporated. All that remains is to make the survey and secure the right of way through private land, which will be done at once. This should be gratifying news to our citizens, for the benefit that Paris and Bourbon county will derive from this road will never be appreciated until the road is hauling passengers and freight into our city.
The connection it will give us at Maysville with the C. & O. and the river is in itself enough for us to see one great benefit to be derived. Remember this road proposes to haul freight as well as passengers, and at present we are at the mercy of the L.
& N. The officers of the Traction Company are enthusiastic over the prospects of building the road, and they are of such caliber that we feel safe in saying we will have the Maysville, Carlisle, Millersburg and Paris Traction Road beyond a doubt.

EVERY paper in the State should take up the cry of "down with the secret ballot" and point out to the people that the vivi voce way of fearlessly going to the polls and calling out your vote is far the best system. Fourteen years under the alleged secret ballot has demonstrated there was never a scheme devised that was more productive of fraud and corruption. It has reduced bribery to a science and made it impossible to punish violators of that law. It has prostituted citizens by compelling the voter to sneak off to himself into a curtained booth instead of openly casting his vote in a manly way. If you want to aid cheaters in elections we know of no better way than voting for the secret ballot at the next November election.

FROM the latest reports it looks as if there is but little chance for an agreement between the Japanese and Russian peace commissioners at Portsmouth. Russia has refused to accept President Roosevelt's suggestion, and it is said that Emperor William, of Germany, is the President's antagonist in his fight for peace. We are in favor of turning the whole matter over to Oyama and let him fight it out to a finish. Russia has needed a good whipping for years, and if Oyama is given the word he will put the Czar and his royal family in the "has been" class in short order. The last message from Oyama was "Turn me loose Mr. Johnsing, and I'll do the rest."

It has always been said that "everything goes in Louisville," from stealing a cigarette to a primary election. We have doubted this until last week, when the heads from half a dozen corpses were stolen. Their bodies were in the pickling vats of a medical college for dissection this fall. This, without any argument, assures us that "everything does go in Louisville, and she is entitled to the bun."

THE Democratic ticket to be voted for in Bourbon at the coming November election is the strongest that has been in the field for years. The personnel of the ticket is beyond criticism of the opposition, and with the harmony that now exists in Democratic circles here, there is not a doubt but what old Bourbon will given a record breaking Democratic vote in November.

It is indeed a sorry sight to see the State Administration machine stooping to any kind of underhand work to bring about the defeat of a staunch old Democrat like Senator Blackburn. It is beneath the dignity of these high offices, and the Democratic party is not gaining any votes by the "rule or ruin" policy of this "infernal machine."

THE eminent Bishop Potter, of subway saloon fame, is now in favor of short sermons. One of his strongest points is a quotation from the late Josh Billing—"If a man can't strike ile in twenty minutes, he's borin' in the wrong place, or he's got a mighty bad auger."

Refuses $150,000,000.

Unless owners of homes to the east and west of Central Park in the vicinity of Seventy-fifth street bestir themselves, they will find themselves at the mercy of a syndicate composed of some of the best known men in Wall street, according to J. T. Cowan, of Dallas, Texas, who came to the city recently to recover a tract of 160 acres in this section which includes a considerable portion of Central Park as well, the New York Herald says.

"At the solicitation of six prominent and wealthy men in the financial district I attended a conference which lasted several hours," said Mr. Cowan.

"As a result of this talk and after a careful examination of the documents in my possession these men offered to buy a controlling interest in this estate for $150,000,000 cash. I did not accept the offer, although under the power of attorney I hold I have full authority to do so. I believe the interest which these men desire to obtain is worth considerable more and that they will raise their figures in the near future.

"I have been at work on this matter several years, and as soon as the men to whom my documents were submitted examined them they realized the value of my claim. I am the principal heir on my mother's side of James J. Hartsfield, who on March 12, 1795, leased 160 acres in this section of the city for 99 years. While I have been unable to obtain any facts from the city authorities since I arrived from Dallas with Rhodes Baker, my counsel, a week ago, I have made sufficient progress in other quarters to clinch my claim absolutely, as the city will find when I am prepared to press my suit for the portion of the estate occupied by Central Park.

"Doubtless you have forgotten it, but your City Hall was destroyed by fire completely in the fifties and all the original maps and papers are said to have been burned, so that the papers I hold are probably the only records of the lease which the city made with James Hartsfield. I have received letters from many of the men who own homes on the tract which I expect to recover offering to settle with me now before the proceedings advance further, in order to make sure they will not lose their homes, but I have told them, as I did the men who summoned me to the conference this afternoon, that I did not consider their offers sufficient."

Mr. Cowan declined to make known the names of the men who had offered to pay him $150,000,000 for a controlling interest in his claim.

The crop of geraniums in Southern France now reaches 3,300,000 pounds. One hectare (2.47 acres) produces from 55,000 to 66,000 pounds of leaves, worth from $1.14 to $1.33 per 220 pounds.

The exposition of rare old books and manuscripts now being held in the British Museum includes the oldest known manuscript of the Bible, of the ninth century.

In Spain street performers on the guitar are licensed, while organ grinders are rigorously suppressed.

Hauling grain eleven miles by traction engine was one of the new features in the agricultural life of Longmont, Col. Five hundred and ten sacks of barley, weighing 40,750 pounds were hauled into Longmont on one trip.

Wife Worship.

Mrs. Gladstone worshiped her husband with the old-fashioned, unreasoning blind admiration that woman paid to her husband in the past, regarding him as the handsomest, bravest, wisest and most learned of men, but then she had some reason. Even in her case, though, the good old lady's exaggerated wife worship would sometimes make her appear ridiculous.

She was staying once at a country house, and on a certain evening, having finished dressing before her husband, she descended to the drawing room alone. In the drawing room three or four gentlemen were discussing the misfortunes of Ireland. One of them, as she entered, said:

"I can't imagine what will be the fate of poor old Erin but there's one above who knows."

"Yes," said Mrs. Gladstone complacently. "He will be down in a minute. He is upstairs brushing his hair."

Bennington Disaster.

The findings and opinion of the court of inquiry which investigated the fatal explosion on the gunboat Bennington was made public by Secretary Bonaparte at the navy department. The court expresses the opinion that the explosion was caused by excessive steam pressure in "Boiler B," resulting from closing the valve connecting the boiler with the steam gauge. The court is also of the opinion that D. N. Holland, a fireman on duty, had made the mistake of shutting off the valve.

NOW IS THE TIME TO GET WELL.

Nature Helps Mi-o-na Cure Stomach Troubles in Short Order.

The summer months are the best in the whole year for the treatment and cure of stomach troubles. The outdoor life, with natural exercise, the fruits and berries which are so freely eaten, all help to restore healthy action to the digestive organs.

Now when Nature will aid Mi-o-na in curing indigestion and giving strength to the stomach an whole digestive system, is the best time to use this remarkable remedy.

Taken before each meal, Mi-o-na will soothe and heal the inflamed and irritated lining of the stomach and solar-plexus, and strengthen the nerves of the digestive tract. Used at any time of the year, it cures all diseases of the stomach, excepting cancer, but in summer months it gives health and strength twice as quickly.

If you suffer with headaches, indigestion, flatulency, specks before the eyes, fermentation, heart burn, dizziness, or have a variable appetite, and a general feeling of despondency or weakness, it shows clearly that the stomach is not digesting the food as it should. Instead of the food being assimilated and making rich, red blood and good solid flesh and muscle, it is turned in the stomach into a sour, slimy, fermenting mass that causes gases, distress after eating, and poisonous germs that fill the whole body with poor health.

Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of Mi-o-na for a few days, and all this will be changed for the better, and health restored. Ask Clarke & Co. to show you the Mi-o-na guarantee.

Brazilian Servants.

Servants in Brazil refuse to sleep in the house where they were employed, preferring to sleep at their own homes. They are accustomed to leaving work at about 7 o'clock in the evening, and no amount of urging will induce a servant to return before 7 or 8 o'clock the following morning.

As the baker and the milkman make their rounds in the early morning, it is the custom to remove a pane of glass from one of the kitchen windows, and through this opening the family supplies are dropped until the leisurely servant arrives to take charge of the house.

New residents are apt to complain of this custom, but they soon make the discovery that servants in Brazil are as important as our own kitchen monarchs, and only alternative is to one's own housekeeping.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. Mhhis is to warn you to beware of such people who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations.

Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, and my heart was weakened and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Cause Far Rejoicing.

In a prospective farming community of Iowa the Methodists razed their old barlike structure, and in its place erected a beautiful church edifice. This building was modern in all of its appointments, and possessed the conveniences which made a church home attractive.

After the dedicatory services Jason Hollister, a contributing pillar, returned home contented. His face was lighted with a satisfied smile, and he gave vent to appreciative grunts as he raked to and fro.

"And, ma," he explained to his wife, who had remained at home to prepare dinner, "they have a floor which runs down-hill to the pulpit. I tell you, there'll be no more backslidin' in our church."

Unusual Freak of Lightning.

[Lesnerus (Minn.) Cor. St. Paul Pioneer Press.]

Hiram Beichstader, of Tepley, this county, had a strange experience with lightning yesterday. Mr. Beichstader is owner of an electric automobile, which he claims is much better than either gasoline or steam cars for the reason that it is not so liable to get out of order, but even his machine is not free from all trouble, as he learned yesterday, when the storage battery gave out while he was still 25 miles from home, out on the Lake road, and just as a storm that had been coming up began to look serious. The auto began to run slower and slower and finally stopped on a deserted part of the road, nearly a mile from the closest house.

When he had ascertained that there was no more power in the machine, the party alighted and started on foot as fast as they could walk, in search of some sort of shelter from the coming storm. There was a little hill on the road 20 rods ahead of the point where they had to leave the auto. When they reached the crest of this and were about to descend, all turned around to have one more look at their now useless conveyance. Just as they did so, the heavens were rent with a blinding flash of lightning. The bolt seemed to strike close to the automobile, for the dust flew up in a cloud all around the machine.

Then, to their amazement, the auto sprang towards them, and in a moment was climbing the hill at a rapid rate. As it was about to pass them, Mr. Beichstader's boy, a little lad, sprang into it, and seizing the levers, brought it to a standstill. They now examined the machine and found that the bolt of lightning had struck it, doing no damage, other than ripping off some of the leather upholstery, and, penetrating into the storage battery, had fully charged the machine again. The current having given out, the autoists had not turned it off when they left the car, and the machinery was ready to move as soon as the power was turned on.

The overjoyed party climbed into the restored automobile and raced ahead of the storm for 25 miles into town, in 30 minutes, actually borne on the wings of the lightning.

Sunflower Philosophy.

A hero is a man who doesn't have any bad luck.

It isn't a bit cooler to be on the shady side of life.

There never was a man who did not over-work a willing horse.

Lots of people would laugh at funerals if they dared.

Some people live not by intelligence but by instinct, as the animals do.

If a man were his own enemy, what stories he could tell on himself!

Don't forget that people have sharper eyes than hawks, and that they use them industriously.

You can't realize how little money there is in a five-dollar bill until you break it.

You may be invited to ride to the polls in a hack, but you can bet that you will be compelled to walk home.

It is always a matter of regret that the two meanest dogs in town do not get together and fight.

We all know how much trouble we have ourselves, but we seldom realize how much trouble others have.

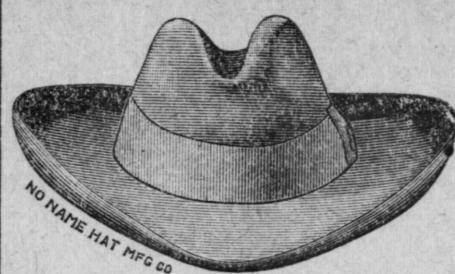

Good news travels; not so rapidly as bad news, of course, but it travels. Do a good thing and people will hear of it in time.

When it is remembered how many things a man does and would do for money, the wonder grows that all are millionaires.

A handsome woman with an ugly husband is all right, but a handsome husband with an ugly wife is a combination that will cause trouble.

If you wish to buy I have about 125 farms from which you can make a selection. JOHN DULEY, tf Maysville, Ky.	The eclipse of the sun will be partially visible here on August 30. The sun will rise at 5:05 on that morning half way obscured and the dark shadow will grow until a bright crescent is seen, then the shadow will gradually recede until by six o'clock the great disc will clear again.	I have a quantity of pure apple cider vinegar that was made in Bourbon county. I guarantee that a trial of this vinegar will convince you that it is the purest and best vinegar ever brought to Paris. 25-tf H. MARGOLEN. Allen, a Federal Inspector, more than 5,000 cattle have died of fever in the Cherokee nation within the last two weeks.
